Thinking Out Loud

(By H. M. L.)

Senator Borah apparently thinks that the way to "soak the rich" is to "soak 'em." He has introduced an amendment to the tax bill that will really shut off one avenue of tax escape for the wealthy, that is to issue no more Federal bonds that are tax exempt. Theoretically exempt bonds are no better than non-exempted bonds, since the amount of the tax will be reflected in the interest rate, but for those who put millions into tax exempt bonds there is a temendous saving. We doubt if Borah will succeed in imposing the amendment. The administration leaders cry that this would place the Federal government at a disadvantage in borrowing, since every state, county and political subdivision may now issue tax exempt bonds and apparently there is no constitutional way by which this practice may be stopped.

Frank Y. McLaughlin, Works Progress administrator in California, in a statement just received emphasizes his determination to comply literally with the order of President Roosevelt to drop from the relief rolls all persons who refuse to accept the wages or the conditions of employment provided by the new Federal works program. In other words, strikes such as we had on the high school grounds among the SERA workers, will be just too bad —for the workers.

The pay provided by WPA is purposely smaller than that current in private industry. Along with the employment under WPA is an obligation to place workers in private industry as quickly as possible, and for that purpose a free employment agency is an adjunct of the plan. The government will aid only those who are able and willing to work, and these only so long as they fail to obtain private employment.

University and high school extension work for the education of adults is to be supplimented by the Federal government, wherever classes of these are sufficiently large to warrant the employment of instructors. As a matter of practice, such classes are usually needed in communities which have a large rpoportion of aliens, who seek to learn English and such understanding of American institutions as to be able to pass citizenship tests.

The return of the Native Son, as lieutenant governor, to address old neighbors and friends on the Ridge where he was born, was an event of moving significance in the San Juan Ridge Fiesta. A native of the Ridge to welcome Lieutenant Governor Hatfield was W. E. Moulton, who has lived all his life there and has engaged in business for 38 years in San Juan and French Corral. He declares that all in that time the Ridge has never staged such a celebration as that of Saturday and Sunday. While all returns from the various money raising activities of the Fiesta are not yet reported, it is safe to say that the new community house for the Ridge will have been paid for. The best fruit of the Fiesta, is undoubtedly the discovery made by the Ridge folks of what they can accomplish, as a unit, by team work and by mustering and pooling all their energies, talents and resources for the community good. This is the initial step in community progress.

U. C. EXTENSION WORK

More than 10,000 Californians are to have a regular university education brought right to their homes, according to plans completed by the Extension Division of the University of California. The better use of leisure time is the motive which prompts the Extension Division to put the plan into effect.

Mrs. Addie Lester of San Francosco came up a few days ago and is spending her annual vacation in her old home just back of the National hotel. Mrs. Lester is a former business woman of this city and enjoys returning here to meet old friends and enjoy the climate.

Mrs. Florence Evans most graciously entertained at a dainty dinner on Saturday her sister, Mrs. Jennie Schroeder, and Mrs A.ddie Lester.

Mrs. Edna Miller returned to her home in Sacramento Thursday after a visit of several days with her sister, Mrs. Carl Larsen. She was accompanied to Sacramento by her nephew, Lawrence Petersen, and Mrs. Larsen, who returned the same day.

FLOWER SHOW WILL BE HELD IN LATE SEPT.

At the special meeting of the Civic Club at the Brand Studio on Monday night, August 12 the ladies decided to hold their third annual flower show as usual this year but to put the date a little later in September than in previous years. The exact date will soon be announced.

NEW DESKS FOR SCHOOL

Ten new desks were taken to the Washington school last week to accomodate new pupils who will attend the school from the Spanish mine. This season the mining company purchased a new bus to transport the children from the lower camp to Washington, Miss Hazel Hagan, will again teach the school.

CALIF. CATTLE BUSINESS STAGES SHARP RECOVERY

(By RALPH H. TAYLOR)

The California livestock industry, gives every promise of a remarkable come back this year, with the condition of ranges from 93 to 100 per cent of normal and with prospects of a good supply of grass-fat cattle by early fall. Grass cattle marketings from California points have been sufficient to keep both the San Francisco and Los Angeles markets fairly well supplied with stock and there has also been a movement of grass-fat steers and desirable cows and heifers to out-of-state markets.

Setting the pace in the recovery parade for the livestock industry, the price of live hogs climbed to highs during July not equaled for five years, advancing from 85 cents to $1 per hundredweight over the previous month. Lamb prices, however, dropped off about 25 cents per hundredweight during the same period, but prospects of ample hay and relatively low cost grain indicate that the feeder lamb market will be considerably better than last year.

Carlot shipments of eggs from the Pacific Coast for the first six months of 1935 totaled only 1,335 cars as compared with 1,907 cars for the first half of 1934, but materially increased prices have greatly stimulated the California poultry industry as indicated in the output of baby chicks. Commercial hatcheries in California report the largest production and sale of baby chicks since 1930.

The unpredictability of the current season comes into evidence again in the dairy industry. Most inexplicable is the fact that consumption is dropping below that of a year ago despite the downward trend of prices.

Viewed as a whole, agriculture, like business and industry, seems to be passing through the throes of depression convalescence, with all of the irritations which normally characterize such a period. But after convalescense, according to medical tradition, comes the glow of good health and full recovery.

STATE FAIR OFFERS HALF PRICE SCRIP

Visitors who are planning to come on any of the ten days of the California State Fair which opens in Sacramento on August 31 can do their half-price ticket shopping by mail this year.

During the fair, the regular fifty cent admission will be charged for the principal attractions, but in advance of the opening, scrip books will be sold which contain the equivalent of ten admissions for twenty-five cents each.

Visitors which do not have access to the Future Farmers, 4-H Clubs or metropolitan department stores which are aiding in the advance sale can secure their half-price tockets by writing directly to the scrip department at the state fair grounds in Sacramento.

The privilege of purchasing half-price admissions will be withdrawn throughout the state on Friday, August 30, but will be continued at the state fair gates through the opening day, Saturday, August 31, only.

The scrip tickets are good for admissions to the grounds, grandstand, horse show and parking areas and are also transferable.

Fair officials estimate that over $80,000 has been saved in the past two years by those who have done their ticket shopping early.

PRATTI WRITES IMPRESSIONS OF SCOUT TRIP

Letters have been received by home folks from the three Boy Scouts on a tour of the northern part of the United States. Albert Pratti and two companions, Dick Marriott, and Ray Wilde. Letters received in Nevada City on Friday stated the boys were having a fine time. They were near Pueblo, Colo., and the next message is to be expected from Chicago from the special train:

The two letters following are from Albert Pratti.

Between Elko and Colby, Nev.
August 14, 1935.

Dear Folks:

I hope this letter finds you all well and happy. I am fine outside of being a little homesick, but there are so darn many things of interest to see that there isn't time to get homesick.

The train is travelling very fast, since we have begun to cross the desert. I have been awake all night, and have seen many things of interest that those who were sleeping didn't see. We changed engines at Sparks, Nevada, this morning at 3:30 a. m., and stopped for a few minutes in Carlin, Nev., this morning at 6:15 a. m.

All that can be seen from the train now are bare mountains, sage brush as far as you can see. In some spots in the desert its pretty, we have passed several large ranches, and its all green grass and horses and cattle, then for miles, miles, and miles you see nothing but sage brush again. Here's my time table so far:

Left Auburn, 7:45 p. m.; arrived Colfax, 8:25 p. m.; arrived Blue Canyon, 9:50; arrived Emigrant Gap, 10:15; Reno, Nev., 12:05; Sparks, 12:15 a. m.; Imlay, 3:20; Carlin, 6:15; Elko, 7:00 a. m.

We had breakfast at 7:25 a. m. We lined up to get served at 7:00 a. m. and it was 7:25 before I got seated at my table, it is now 8:15 a. m. and they still are back in the diner in line waiting for their turn. There are over 350 scouts and leaders on this train. We are expected to arrive at Salt Lake City at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday, August 14.

When I get there I'll write before we leave. Please excuse the writing but this car doesn't stay in the same place for one second.

Goodbye. Lots of love, Albert.

Albert's second letter home comes from Glenwood, Colorado:

I hope you are all well and I would feel a whole lot better if I knew, but there is no way for me to know, so all I can do is hope and that's what I am doing all the time.

We had a stop in Salt Lake City from 4:00 p.m. to 6:30 p. m. Wednesday, August 14. We were taken out on special open air street cars to the (Saltain) where we swam. There were fifteen cars full of boys, and you ought to hear the noise when we all sing. We went swimming and it sure was a good lesson and a wonderful experience for me. You can't sink if you want to, but I made a little bit too much of a splash and got some of the water in my eyes. I could hardly see for about an hour. I was about one fouth mile from shore, I couldn't see, so laid on my back and floated when I could see I found that I was a little off my course, but managed to get back where I started from. After we get our suit on, a little trolley that took us out where the water is. When I was on it a fellow took some pictures. (Don't blame him) I am sending you one, see if you can locate me and then keep it. After we went to the lake we went to the Mormon Tabernacle for a short sermon. The organ is the most beautiful thing imaginable. It has 8,000 tubes, the smallest one is 2-3 of an inch and the largest one 32 feet. They played four pieces for us and my ears are still ringing. I saw many more things but to tell the truth I just can't find words to explain them, so I'll tell you all about it when I return home, because I have it all down in my diary. I am sending you a picture of the tabernacle we were in. It is the building with the round black roof. The other catherlal is a beautiful sight. It is all white and has a big statue of Gabriel in reef gold on top of it. We were not allowed to go into that because no one but Mormons are allowed in there.

Well, again I hope you are well, and I'll write again soon. Dick Marriott and Ray Wilde also send kindest regards to all our friends. We are having a wonderful trip.

Our watches are set ahead one hour now.

Boodbye. Lots of love. Albert.

At one o'clock today Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pratti of Nevada City received the following telegram:

Empire State Observatory, New York, (9:46 a. m.), August 19, 1935.

Greetings from the top of the Empire State building way up here. I feel like Yankee Doodle when he came to town. Upon a high church steeple he wondered how the deuce it was the people were all so small.

Albert Pratti.

SERA HAS MOVED INTO COMMUNITY HOUSE HERE

The SERA and WPA office force are now located in Nevada City's new community house. There will be 20 or 22 members of the Nevada county staffs of these two organizations, to make their headquarters here. Permission was granted Messrs Marsh and Mattox, who have charge of SERA and WPA work in this district, comprising three counties, two weeks ago by the Nevada City Park Commission.

There will be several new projects started in the municipal park to which the SERA and WPA are to give special attention and aid. Among others there will be built a four room care takers' cottage and an addition to the community house itself, consisting of a kitchen and dressing room.

The authorities in charge of the SERA and WPA have agreed to maintain in its present condition the community house, and, in event of any notable event in which the community wished to use the house, suitable arrangements will be made for that purpose.

AWARDS MADE IN SWIM CLASSES

Hot weather has swelled the attendance at the municipal swimming pool to unusual numbers. As many as four hundred have visited the pool on some of the warmest days.

Swimming awards made last week by Addison Janes, life guard at municipal pool:

Beginners buttons to Rudy Bilich Merrigan, Willy Usry; Carol Richards; Nancy Pellow.

To qualify must jump in pool over their heads, swim 25 feet and return. None of these youngsters could swim prior to class instruction.

Senior Life Saver: Wylie King, average 93.

Junior Life Savers: Patsy King, Mailyn Chapman, Dorothy Thomas, Thelma Menfae.

Diving Classes: (from spring board): 3 dives, 0 to 10 for each: Pete Sowden, first, 21 points; Walter Miller, second, 20½; Herchel Lotz and Patsy King, tied for third —16 each; Franky Richards, Ellsworth Pingrey, Bobby Deschwanden, Albert Ponticelli; Gene Browning, Ernest Helm, Everet Davis, Marilyn Chapman.

Mr. Janes is going to Paso Robles for one week and Homer Jergenson, U. C. graduate in Sanitary Engineering will substitute fo him.

MRS. GLENNON CRITICALLY ILL

Mrs. Joseph Glennon, who is suffering an attack of pneumonia is in the Jones Memorial hospital in Grass Valley, is critically ill. Latest reports from relatives are that though critically ill she is holding her own. Her many friends hope for her an early recovery..

Mrs. Blanche Logan and two sons of Tonopah, are visiting Mrs. Logan's sister, Mrs. William Kervin, in Nevada City.

Mrs. L. R. Robins had as a week end guest, her son, Frank Grady, of Sacramento.

Old-Timers---Visitors Royally Entertained at San Juan's Fiesta

(By KATHERINE BRAITHWAITE)

North San Juan was on the spot over the week end. The bightest spot to be found anywhere in the state.

Throughout the entire preceding month the town had been busy as a beehive and last Saturday and Sunday it was literally swarming.

Gay flags and colored bunting dressed the unique little town into holiday garb. Miners with extraordinary hirsute adornment; old timers on horseback or leisuisly driving their wagons and teams; caravans of residents from Downieville, Alleghany, Camptonville and all the surrounding mountain towns. Important and influential citizens in fine motor cars from San Francisco, Sacramento, Fresno and Auburn. Huge crowds of women and children; old friends, old time conservations; everyone that could possibly get away from their work were gathered together in one happy throng and old San Juan was up bright and early and proved to be, as always, the perfect hostess.

Saturday's program began with dedication exeercises for the new Twamley Hall. Promptly at three-thirty, Mr. T. A. Farley of Oakland, formerly an old resident of the Ridge, ran an old flag up that had been used many years before in similar exercises and as the beautiful flag fluttered in the breeze the audience rose to its feet and sang America as they had neved sang it before.

Director Christian Andersen than introduced J. A. McMahon of Downieville who paid special tribute to the old flag and commended the North San Juan Improvement League on its untiring civic endeavor and its conspicious community results.

At the request of the members of the League Judge McMahon dedicated Twamley Hall to the memory of the pioneers of old San Juan and in his own inimitiable fashion recalled to mind the hardships and glory the forty niners brought to the state of California.

At six o'clock director Andersen staged a versatile vaudeville show that provided two full hours of keen enjoyment.

At eight o'clock beautiful Adele Cunningham appeared at the entrance of Twamley Hall. In regal robes of white satin she majestically marched to her throne preceded by a page with the crown on a velvet pillow and three dainty little girls carrying the long satin train.

Solemnly and graciously Miss Cunningham made her vows and became Miss Adele San Juan, queen of the Fiesta and was crowned by the president of the North San Juan League, Mr. Frank Miller, who placed upon her head the royal crown.

The new queen was then presented with an elegant wrist watch from the North San Juan Improvement League and an expensive gift from the Nevada City Drug Store. The queen in turn presented her five ladies in waiting with beautiful gifts through the courtesy of the Grass Valley and Nevada City merchants.

Directly after the distribution of the gifts Mr. W. E. Moulton led the grand march which swung into the queen's waltz and opened the big all night dance on the marvelous floor of Twamley Memorial Hall.

At ten o'clock Sunday morning the Grass Valley Miners met the North San Juan nine and the local boys learned to their great loss that the Miners are a baseball team that goes out and brings home the bacon.

Fred Conner headed the Nevada City caravan and committee that met and escorted Lieutenant Governor George Hatfield to his old home on the Ridge at North San Juan. Appropriately decorated cars of delegates and escort honored the lieutenant governor from Downieville, Camptonville, Alleghany and Grass Valley.

Judge J. A. McMahon of Downeville led the envoys of Sierra county and Judge Acton M. Cleveland led the Camptonville delegation. The escort caravans met the lieutenant governor at LeBarr meadows and accompanied him to the National Hotel of North San Juan.

On the shady verandah of that historical old building the lieutenant governor renewed acquaintances and shook hands of old school mates and fellow citizens. At one o'clock luncheon was served in the quaint old dining room whose wall have witnesses so many of these affairs. Mr. Hatfield's honored guest was Johnny O'Neil, whose father had been instructor to the lieutenant governor when he attended the public schools in Nevada City. To his right sat Queen Adele San Juan.

Directly after the lunch a huge crowd gathered at Twamley Hall where the Veterans of Foreign Wars dedicated a flag to the new community building. The lieutenant governor, introduced by Judge George L. ADD FIESTA BRINGS PztpFbP Jones of Nevada City, delivered the Fiesta address.

The honored guests departed soon afterward, at six o'clock director Andersen again took charge of the stage in Twamley Hall where a radio amateur program was staged. The hall was again cleared and dancing which continued until a late hour completed the two days of entertainment that will be long remembered on Old San Juan Ridge.

From all reports there must have been in attendance of between 4,000 and 5,000 people on the Ridge Saturday and Sunday. Special mention and unlimited praise must be given to the officers and members of the North San Juan Improvement League. Messrs. Frank Miller, Harvey Trubescenk, William Clarkson, Obe Murry and Phil Solaro. The ladies of the league, Mrs. Nellie Uhrig, Polly Heptburn, Gladys Dahlstrom, Clarkson, Proom and many others which lack of space prevents a detailed list.

Mr. and Mrs. Chistian Andersen of Nevada City worked untiringly and added the professional touch to the vaudeville events of the two days. Slim Perret, famous stunt flyer for the movies in Los Angeles but now conducts the Slim Perret Flying School of Nevada City flew over the Ridge and dipped in a graceful salute to old San Juan and its throng of merrymakers below.

Maurice, the finely gifted photographer of Grass Valley who generously made the individual photographs for the queen and her ladies-in-waiting, drove up to San Juan and captured pictures of many of the old historical sites and landmarks which will be given to the Sacramento Bee for preservation and possible use in the future.

TRINITY MEMBERS AT TAHOE SERVICES SUN.

Thirty six persons from Emmanuel and Trinity parishes attended the services of Little Episcopal church on the shores of Lake Tahoe on Sunday. A caravan of eight cars took them from Grass Valley and Nevada City yesterday morning.

The choir of Emmanuel church of Grass Valley under the direction of Mrs. Oakley Johns and a men's quartet from the same choir rendered beautiful sacred music for the congregation which filled the church.

Bishop Noel Porter of the diocese of Sacramento, who takes charge of the Tahoe church during th summer, conducted the beautiful Episcopal services and preached the sermon.

After the services the group enjoyed a picnic lunch under the tall pines back of the church. Those attending from Nevada City were: Mrs. C. E. Parsons, Mrs. Anita Lochlin, Mrs. C. B. Hathaway, Miss Mary Hoskins, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Monroe, Miss Alma Hecker and Miss Bernice Clemo.

Mrs. Leland Smith and children returned Saturday from a two weeks vacation spent at Lake Tahoe. Mrs. Smith has as house guests, Mrs. Earl Burmingham and daughter, Barbara, of Susanville and Miss Alice Taylor of Berkeley.

VERY LATEST FASHIONS FOR NEVADA CITY FOLK

Mrs. Ed Rose of the Rose Fashion Shoppe returned Wednesday evening from attending market week in San Francisco. The annual fashion show in the Rose Room of the Palace Hotel was attended by thousands of buyers. The affair was so large it was held on two successive days to avoid the heavy rush of last year. Mrs. Rose says the buying and talk among buyers indicated they are looking forward to a very prosperous season.

Mrs. Rose brought home many new things, among them being the latest in hats, coats, suits, dresses, evening gowns and many accessories.

In hats changes are not extreme, but subtle, a new cut in the brim or some distinctive ornamentation. New shades for the season are brown, navy, dubonnet, French violet. Rust and green are also very good. In fabrics velvet leads in formal dresses with rich trimmings such as brocades and metal cloth.

LAST YEAR'S WINE

Russell B. Farley, state administrator of liquor control in this district, assisted by federal officers and Chief of Police Garfield Robson, destroyed 630 gallons of wine on the premises of Mrs. Theresa Solaro near the Gold Run bridge on Thursday. Mr. Farley stated the wine had been made last year without a manufacturers license.

He has been working in the Marysville district the last few days with other state men, federal officers and the city police. The fruit season is on and the city is experiencing trouble with drunks in licensed places, and boot legging.

HENRY YEE IS WELL PREPARED AND ABLE TO HELP YOUR AILMENT

Having spent 2 years in the University of California, 1 year at Leland Stanford and 2 years at the University of Michigan then having returned to China for a 7 year course in Chinese herbs, Henry Yee has equipped himself with the necessary knowledge to successfully administer Chinese herbs to aid your health. He has had 16 years of experience and accomplished many outstanding successes with patients who have had chronic ailments.

HIGHLY RECOMMENDED

Dear Sir:

Having suffered twelve years with stomach trouble, I want to thank you for your 3 weeks' herbal treatment. My trouble has completely disappeared.

J. T. BARBER,
1517 M St., Sacramento.

ARTHRITIS REMOVED

I suffered with arthritis in my knee joint for 1½ years. Took Henry Yees' herbs for few weeks. Am all well now. All of the swelling and pain is gone.

If such quick relief can be obtained there is no excuse for anyone to be sick.

CHAS. BUSH, Rt. 4, Box 3068, City.

ANOTHER RECOMMENDATION

I suffered from blood poison in my hand. Have been affected for 2 weeks Treatment entirely satisfactory and feel fine. I am able to work now.

TOM KITE, care of Sutter Basin Co., Robbins, Calif.

BLOOD TROUBLE

I suffered with blood trouble for many years. I have been doctoring with others, spent lots of money. They did me no good until I came to H. Yee. After taking his herbs for 2 months I am all well now. If any one sick I highly recommend Yee & Yee Herb Co.

JOHN DICHESARE, 2416-16th St., Sacramento.

Personal

Mr. Walter Carlson, principal of the Washington grammar school, returned Sunday from a vacation spent at his home at Arcata. He is making preparations for reopening school Monday, August 26.

Among the six Nevada City Boy Scouts going to North San Juan to assist as traffic patrol, were: Clem Organ, Will Sharp, Jr., and Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller motored to Sacramento Saturday with their two grandsons who have been spending their vacation with them in Grass Valley.

Deputy Sheriff Carl T. Larsen and Mrs. Larsen had as week end guests Supervisor and Mrs. Melburn Haigh, and Mrs. Alpha Penrose, of Orland, Glenn county. The group attended the San Juan Fiesta on Sunday. Mrs. Penrose spent her girlhood at San Juan and enjoyed the reunion. Mrs. Penrose and Mr. Haigh are aunt and cousin, respectively of Mrs. Larsen.

Mr. and Mrs. John Henning and daughter, Ellen, of Lodi spent the week end with their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Robinson at the National Hotel. Mr. Robertson is an army engineer and is making a government survey of the placer mining properties in the vicinity of Nevada City. While here Mr. and Mrs. Henning visited Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Leete.

Mr. Delbert Godfrey who has been visiting his mother, Mrs. Annie Godfrey of Nevada City for the past several weeks, left yesteday for San Francisco where he will take the Taiyo Maru for Manila. He will stop one day in Honolulu and will spend several weeks in Japan visiting Yokohama, Koby, Nagasaka. From Manila he will go to Baguio where he will live.

Misses Stella and Amy Davies of this city are spending a two weeks vacation in the northern United States and Canada. Before returning home they will visit Portland, Seattle, Vancouver and Victoria. Miss Stella Davies is employed at the Plaza Grocery and Miss Amy Davies is with the Alpha Hardware store, in Nevada City.

Gilbert Davis, principal of the Angles Camp high school, is spending a few days at his home at Blue Tent. He has been attending an educational conference at Stanford university where 500 administrators from all over California, and a few from out of the state, held a panel discussion of educational methods. He stated there is a tendency to reorganize much of the school system. Mr. Davis also attended a session at U. C., Berkeley. His school will reopen September second.

Mrs. C. E. Parsons was happily surprised by a visit from two cousins from Massachusetts last evening who motored out to the coast, by the southern route and stopped at the San Diego fair before coming to Nevada City. Robert Schuler and his sister Miss Anna Schuler of Montague City, Mass., will be guests at the Parsons home for a week.

WASHINGTON NEWS

(By MRS. CLYDE COLE)

The Washington school opened on August 5, with Miss Hazel Hagen as teacher. Owing to mumps and measles the eenrollment was not so good, but today a full attendance, from the Spanish mine. The school has a larger enerollment than it has had in the past twenty years.

There are still several children unable to attend, due to illness.

Every available house in town is occupied at the present time. Many of the people are working at the Spanish mine and Mountain View mine.

Some heavy equipment has been taken to the Washington gravel mine the past few weeks. This mine is about one-half mile from town.

On September first the annual camp stew will be held in Washington. An old time dance will be held in the evening. Everyone is invited to attend. The stew will be free.

A very attractive house has been erected here by Mr. and Mrs. Birdman. Mrs. Birdman is a relative of Mrs. O. Helgesen who formerly resided in town.

Mr. A. Schwartz and son Milton visited in Richmond the past week.

W. E. Luce and wife of Reno, Nevada were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cole over the week end. Mr. Luce is owner of the Giant King mine.
